Nashville, Dec. 15th-9 p. m.

We attacked the enemy's left this morning and drove it from the river below the city nearly to Franklin Pike, a distance of about eight miles. We have captured Chalmers's head-quarters and train, and secured a train of about twenty wagons, between eight hundred and a thousand prison-ers, and sixteen pieces of artil-lery. Our troops behaved splendidly, all of them taking a share in assaulting and charging the enemy's breast works. I shall attack the enemy again to-morrow, if he stands to fight. If he retreats during the night I will pursue. I have been throwing a heavy cavalry forces in his rear to destroy his trains, if possible. Signed, Thomas, Maj. Gen.

No intelligence has been received from Sherman later than published dispatches transmitted by Gen. Foster and Admiral Dahlgreen.

(Signed) STANTON.

A special from Washington says: It is understood that the financial policy which the Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means will pass through Congress, will be the issue of twenty years bonds, bearing eight per cent, interest, and payable in currency. It is intended to rely upon them for means to finish the war.

Nashville, Dec. 15th.

Forrest's main body of cavalry are said to be in the vicinity of the Hermitage. A party who reached here from that place yesterday, reports the rebels as anxious to cut the Louisville Railroad, and were intending to plant a battery near Edgefield Junction, to com-mand that road. Rebel rumors in the city say Hood will soon be reinforced by Price, Breckenridge and Magruder.

Detroit, Dec. 16th.

A railroad accident occurred on the Grand Trunk Railway last night, caused by the collision of a western bound passenger train with a freight train, near the city. After the collision the cars took fire, and several wounded prisoners unable to extricate themselves from the wreck, burned to death. The full extent of the loss of life is unascertained.

New York, Dec. 16th.

The Morning Star, from New Orleans, the 10th, which arrived, saw off Hatteras, on Thursday, a fleet of steamers steering southwest. Gen. Davidson's great raid from Baton Rouge has been heard from. He reached Pungepapo the 30th ult.; burned a conscript camp; destroyed all stores and dwellings; captured a large number of horses, and carried away immense numbers of niggers.

Mobile papers of the 4th, say, he was marching on that city.

The Indian Fight in Colorado.

In the Denver News of the 8th inst., we find the particulars of the recent battle between a part of the 1st and 3rd Col. Vols., under Col. Chivington, near Fort Lyon. The fight occurred on the Big Bend of the Sandy, about forty miles northeast of Fort Lyon. Colonel Shoup, of the 3d Colorado, says the engagement commenced at sunrise and lasted 'till 2 1-2 P. M. He adds that "the men fought with great bravery, but with some disorder. Our loss was eight killed and forty wounded. The Indian loss is variously estimated at from 300 to 500, I think about 300, and between 500 and 600 Indian saddles, over 100 lodges with all their camp equipage. Black Kettle, White Antelope, One Eye, and other chiefs were killed."

We give the following letter from Col. Chivington, 1st Col. Vols., from which it appears that he expected another fight with the red skins in a few days :

HEAD-QUARTERS DIS'T OF COLORADO, In the field, on Big Bend of Sandy Creek, Col. Ter., Nov. 29, 1864.)
To Chas. Wheeler. A. A. A. General Head-quarters District of Colorado,

Sm: I have not the time to give you a detailed history of our engagement of to-day, or to mention those officers and men who distinguished themselves in one of the most bloody Indian battles ever longht on these plains. You will find enclosed, the report of my Surgeon in charge, which will bring to many anxious friends, the sad fate of loved ones. who are and have been risking every thing to avenge the horrid deeds of those savages we have so severely handled. I shall leave here, as soon as I can see our wounded safely on the way to the hospital at Fort Lyon, for the villages of the Sioux, which are reported about eighty miles from here on the Smok Hill, and three thousand strong-so look out for more fighting. I will state for the consideration of gentlemen who are epposed to fighting these red scoundrels. that I was shown, by my Chief Surgeon, the scalp of a white man taken from the lodge of one of the Chiefs, which could not have been more than two or three days taken; and I could mention many mere things to show how these Indians been drawing Government who have rations at Fort Lyon, are and have been Very respectfully, Your obedient servant J. M. CHIVINGTON. Col. Comd'g Colorado Expedition. Against Indians on the Plains.

Although it is not so stated, it is to be hoped that the Indians defeated, are those that have been committing raids on the emigrant and stage routes during the past fall. A severe drubbing will do them good, and they should be houted until severe chastisement should compel them to sue for and maintain a permanent peace.

Rumors.—It is removed that a distinguished gentleman, resident in the city, celebrated the thirty-ninth anniversary of his being ushered into this breathing world, on Friday evening, in gorgeous style. In fact after the expiration of forty-eight hours, we have an indistinct recollection of something of the sort-vague dreams are floating through our editorial brain, wherein egg nogg, apple toddy, champagne, pickles and all sorts of good things hold prominent place. The most remarkable thing about the whole affair is, that about this time last year this same friend did something of the same sort, but then the celebration was understood to be the twenty-fourth anniversary. Just bow, in twelve months, our friend has managed to borrow (!) fifteen years we can't for the life of us tell-and we have had many and sundry inquiries on that point from the crinolined portion of humanity.

THE OBSERVANCE OF CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS. - This year's Christmas comes on Sunday. As it is a day of general mirth and jollification, not exactly in keeping with the sanctity of the Sabbath, we understand that our citizens bave generally agreed to celebrate Saturday as Christmas. We think this is a good idea and trust that it will be universally observed.

As New Year's day also falls on Sunday, the ladies have unanimously agreed to "be at home" on the Saturday preceeding, and woe betide that unluckyindividual who waits 'till Sunday.

ARRIVED .- Mr. Street, the always, welcome Paymaster of the Eastern Overland Stage Line, arrived in the city yesterday from the East. We are told that he has been scattering Holladay's greenbacks with a perfect looseness. It is a good about Christmas times.

Head-Quarters. Army Potomac,

December 15th. Unusual quiet has prevailed all along the lines in front of Petersburg the last few days, scarcely a shot being exchanged, except in the evening. On the right of the line last night, however, quite an excitement was kept up from about 8 to 10 o'clock, when the fire died away gradually. After midnight not a shot was heard. The pickets in the vicinity of Fort Hill were responsible for this outbreak, although some other parties of the line farther west, were participants. A report is current, that a number of pickets, who were watching the rear lines, were taken and murdered the night before last. In consequence of which, the force of men on this side has been doubled, and changes are being made in the disposition of our troops. There is nothing to indicate an early attack on the enemy.

The troops engaged in the fate raid are most all in good condition. Some returned with frozen hands, feet, and ears, caused by the severe weather.

Baltimore, 16th.

The American's Annapolis special, says: The steamer Havana, has just arrived with news that Sherman had captured Savannab, with 1500 prisoners, after eight hours fighting.. War Department, Washington, Dec. 17th, 8:35. A. M. The following official report of a great victory achieved yesterday by Thomas and his gallant army, and the rebel forces under Hood, in front of Nashville, was received this morning. One of the surprising circumstances connected with the great achievement is the small loss suffered by our troops, evineing, among other things, the admirable skill and caution of Gen. Thomas

In our rejoicings at the defeat of the enemy, thanks are due to the Almighty for the protection of our gallant officers and soldiers in the great conflict they have passed through.

The report of Gen. Thomas, also, gives an unofficial report containing details here subjoined.

Head-Quarters Dep't Cumberland,) Eight miles from Nashville, 6 P. M., Dec. 16th.

I have the honor to report that the enemy has been pressed at all points today in his line of retreat to Bentwood Hills. Brig. Gen. Hatch, of Wilson's corps of cavalry, on the right, turned the enemy's left, and captured a large number of prisoners; the number is not yet reported. Maj. Gen. Scofield's corps next on the left of the line, carried several hills, and captured many prisoners and six pieces of artillery. Brevet Maj. Gen. Smith next on the left of Schofield, carried a salient point of the enemy's line with McMillan's brigade of McArthur's Division, capturing sixteen pieces of artillery, two Brig. Generals and about 2000 prisoners. Brig. Gen. Garrad's division carried the enemy's entrenchments, capturing all the artillery and troops of the enemy on the line. Brig. Gen. Woods' troops on the Franklin pike took up the assault, capturing the enemy's entrenchments, and also, captured eight pieces of artillery and something over 600 prisoners, and drove the enemy within one mile of the Brentwood bill pass. Mai. Gen. Steadman, commanding the detachments of different, armies of the military division of Mississippi, most nobly supported Gen. Woods' left, and bore a most honorable part in the operations of the day. I have ordered the pursuit to be continued in the morning at day-light. Although the troops are thusiasm prevails.

I must not forget to report the operations of Brig. Gen. Johnson, in successfully driving the enemy, with the co-operation of the gun-boats under commander Smith, from their established batteries on the Cumberland river below the city of Nashville. And of the successes of Brig. Gen. Caxton's brigade in covering our right and rear. In the operations of yesterday and to-day, although, I bave no report of the number of prisoners captured by Johnson and Caxton's commands, I know they have made a large number. I am, also, glad to be able to state that the number of prisoners captured yesterday greatly exceeds evening. Woods, fields and entrenchments are strewn with the enemy's small arms abandoned in the retreat. In concinsion, I am happy to state that all this has been effected with but a very small loss to us. Our loss, probably, does not exceed 300. Very few of whom are killed.

GEO. H. THOMAS, (Signed) Maj. Gen't Com'd'g.

Nashville, 16th-9 p. m. During last night, Hood withdrew his right from the river and took a posi tion covering Hillsboro, Granny White's and Franklin pikes, which lines had been carefully prepared for this contingency. He was driven from the first line easily, but the second was very stubbornly defended; and was at last heavily assaulted three times before succeeding. It was carried, however, and twenty pieces of artillery and 205 men, including Gen. Jackson, with the remnant of his division were taken, and the enemy forced back two miles. His army is broken into two parts-one on the White's pike, and the other on the Franklin, with a range of bluffy hills between them. Steadman and Wood, are pressing down upon the latter. A. J. Smith, Schofield and Cary drove the former. Hood can't make another such day's fight while Thomas brate Lincoln's election; cheers were is in good condition to press him. given for Jeff. Davis and Gen. Lee, and in an English or French port.

The Herald's correspondent gives the following account of an expedition up the Roanoke river. The gun boat expedition sent up the river, when opposite Jamestown, eight miles above Plymouth, suddenly came in contact with some torpedoes, placed in the channel by the rebels, and three boats were blown up. The flag ship Wyoming, commander Macomb, senor officer, took the lead. and passed safely through, the Otzego. Lieutenant Arnold, commanding fol lowing. Her bow came in contact the obstruction, but was successfully passed until being struck by the stern, proved to be a large torpedo, which exploded, blew up the Otzego, sinking ber in a few minutes. After the blowing up of the Otzego, the remainder of the fleet remained by her until morning, when those vessels uninjured by the explosion passed up the river. Soon after commander Macomb dispatched on special service duty his old paymaster, Lewis Sands, on the steamer Bagley, with two guns. On arriving in the vicinity of the spot where the Otzego sunk, a torpedo exploded under Bagley, blowing a hole through her, causing her to sink immediately man and a boy were killed. The officers and the rest of the crew escaped by swimming. Paymaster Sands and Capt. Ames, commanding the tug, swam to the wreck of the Otzego, and were picked up soon after the sinking of the Bagley. The steamer picket launch No. 5, was also destroyed. The Roanoke river is a perfect net work of torpedoes. A large number are already taken out still a amoys the Church leaders. They be under the fact that Nevada—beauti silver star-only a few years ago a portion of Utah, has been admitted into the Union, while the "elder born" has to Union, while the electroom has to remain at the outer door, sighing "How long must I walf?" The Telegraph, conducted with excellent ability, but intensely Mormon in its general character—which is solely its own business—devoted an editorial to this question a few days ago, but was not candid enough to tell its readers the true reasons why Utah was not a State. A few days afterward the Ved had an article on the subject, and, without mineing the question, stated in very plain words the reasons why Utah was kept in the background—that, so long as polyg-amy and one-man power" were the ruling characteristics of the Territory, Congress would never admit her into the Union. It may be added, if polygamy and ene-man power did not exist, the words and acts of nearly every leading Mormon during the past two years are of themselves sufficient to bar her out. The sermons in the Tabernacle, wherein the Government has been derided, villified and slandered—the contemptuous re-marks about the currency of the nation, and the disdain manifested from acts of Congress whenever they interfered with Mormon law and rule, are well known to all who reside in the Territory. I have listened to sermons (so termed) in the Tabernacle which were replete with sentiments of hostility to the Government. Many of the sermons thus delivered during the past two years are now on record precisely as they came from the speakers' mouths. There is no desire to have Utah in the background. The fault rests en-They cannot extirely with her people. pect-leaders certainly know it-the Government to clothe them with the power of a State, when they laugh to scorn in their Territorial capacity the laws of that same Government, whenever those laws do not happen to suit their views of the case in issue. Utah will be a State one of these days, and when that event occurs, polyguny and "one-man pow will have ceased within her borders. Her leading citizens will uphold with brave hearts and strong arms a Government which gives exact and equal justice to all her citizens who obey all her laws.

The following Fort Bridger co respondence we clip from the Sacramento Union of the 7th inst:

THE STATE QUESTION

THE SPIRT OF THE PRESS claims attention for a few words. There are now three living newspapers in Utah the Union Vedette-the pioneer dailythe Daily Telegraph and the Deseret News. Then there is the Farmers' Oracle, pub lished at Spring Lake Villa, and the Peep o' Day, a literary journal. The Vedette and Telegraph are the real newspapers, both being admirably made up and a credit to the Territory. The Peepo' Day is the first effort of the kind in Utah, and promises to do well. While it is devoted to Mormonism as a true religion, it is not bigoted, and the editorial articles are written in a generous spirit, with an evident desire to adhere always to the truth. The News is the acknowledged Charch organ, so claimed in its own columns, and as a newspaper is losing interest simply for the reason that two active and energetic dailies anticipate its weekly edition. During the Presidential canvass just ended the Vedet s was intensely Union-devoting its columns to articles on national affairs with as of Utah were going to vote on the ques-tion. It had the satisfaction of announcing that only five California and seven Nevada soldiers voted the McClellan ticket. The Telegraph was more moderate in tone—freely admitting that Lincoln would be elected—and on one occasion, if we mistake not, announced a preference for him; acknowledged several times the great convenience greenbacks in a commercial view-not-withstanding Church leaders attempted to be witty and termed them " Lincoln skins" and published Union successes with favorable comments.
The seizure of the Florida is the latest important item discussed by the Vedette and Telegraph. The former regards the seizure as right, and thinks the time has arrived for decisive action toward-pirates. The latter is of opin-ion that the Government should act to-

Thanks most generous depor, whoever you may be, for that beautiful "toilet set" which you presented us with on Saturday. We most gratefully appreciate your gift, and we would doubly appreciate you if we only knew who you "mought bee." We drilled with it this morning, and on looking in the cunning little glass, we pronounced ourselves handsome-we havn't heard the remark repeated thought and on and all ale

THE Union Varieties give their third performance this evening, when they will appear in negro ministrelsy, and an after piece called the "Omnibus," or Poisoned Guest. Give them a good house, for they are well deserving of one. Billy Shepperd and Cook will appear, supported by the full company.

We fear that the "revelation" lately proclaimed in the "Saintly Tabernacle," that the "Gentile community" would ere long "absquatulate," is but another "try to make the people think so." As this class of citizens are more and more numerons on each occasion we wit the city.

WHILE in the city on Saturday we stepped into the store of Bodenburg & Kahn, in which they have a large and splendid assortment of goods, which they were, we noticed, not very slow in sciling.

THERE are plenty of nice presents for Christmas at Gilberts, Walkers, Ellis Bro., and Bodenburg & Kahn. Seigel & Co. also have a rare selection.

ALL Good Templars who wish to attend the Ball, are requested to purchase their tickets at once.

THE "cunningest mixings" you ever tasted are put in clear glasses at the Washington Saloon.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY VEDETTE:]

Boston, 16th.

Private dispatches from a reliable source, at Montreal, state that there is a perfect panic in Canada amongst railway managers, in anticipation of non-intercourse with the United States, which is expected, unless Government takes prompt action to allay the excitement on the borders.

Washington, 16th.

Official dispatches from Gen. Canby, show a complete success of the expedition sent by him from Vicksburg to co-operate with Sherman. His operations cut Hood's communication with Mobile. Canby reports the probable success of another expedition from Baton Rouge, under Gen. Davidson. A detail of the object is not now proper to disclose. When last heard from, Davidson was reported having caused quite a pan-ic in Mobile, and to be devastating the country generally. Richmond papers to-day confirm the reported capture of Bristol by the expedition supposed to be under command of Stoneman and Burbridge; also, contains an official report of the battle of Franklin, in which it acknowledges the loss of many gallant officers and men. Among them be enumerates Maj.-Gen. Claiburn, Brig. Gen's B. Maj. Gen. Claburn, Brig. Gen's B. Johnston, Williams and Granby, killed; Maj. Gen'l John Brown, Brig. Gen's Carter, Marrigault, Quarles, Cockerell and Scott, wounded. They also state that on Wednesday Sherman carried Fort McAllister, commanding the entrance to the Ogechee river, by storm, and that the capture of this position put Sherman in communication with the Yankee fleet, and necessitates the reinforcement of Savannah. Up to this hour, 8:30, P.M., nothing has been heard from Nashville. Since last night, nothing from Sherman later than Richmond papers report of the capture of McAllister.

STANTON. (Signed)

New York, Dec. 16th.

The Tribune's London letter says: The Laurel, which left Liverpool early in October with Semmes and the same crew of the Alabama, joined the Sea King at Madeira on the 18th of the same month, and both vessels then sailed for Porto Rica, where the Laurel transferred to the Sea King four 48-pounders, two 32-poundcrs, three 12-pound swivels, a large quantity of ammunition and provisions. Four men of the Lanrel volunteered to join the pirate. The name of the Sea King has been changed to Shenandoah, and the transfer of the Laure's four men was made under English colors. The two ships then sailed for Teneriffe, where the crew of the Sea King were put asbore, after giving a promise to report the wreck of their vessel in a gale of wind off the coast. The Shenandoah is a 1000 tons register, and very fast.

The Tribune's special says: Information has been received which is regarded as trustworthy, that the rebels in the interior of North Carolina are preparing for an ex-pected transfer of Lee's army from Virginia to North Carolina. They have in construction, up the Roanoke river, two large vessels, intended as transports. Since the vessels to make another raid. At Weldon and Goldsbero there are quite large bodies of troops, actively engaged in fortifying both places. At other points slong the line of the Weldon Railroad extensive works are in course of construction.

Washington, Dec. 16th. The following unofficial dispatch has been received:

Nashville, Dec. 16th-9 p. m. Hood has fallen back, and is apparently doing his best to get away, while Thomas is pursuing him with great vigor, frequently capturing guns and men. Everything, so far is perfectly success ful, and the prospect is fair to crush Hood's army.

(Signed) An official City Point dispatch of the 16th says : The Richmond Despatch of to-day, after fully confirming previous reports of the capture of Bristol, Tenn., states that the enemy then advanced up the railroad towards Abingdon, which he presumes fell into their hands. Next we hear of them they had, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, pounced down on Glade Spring depot, thirteen miles this side of Abingdon, taking every one there by surprise, and capturing all the railroad employees except one. At last accounts the enemy were pashing up the railroad in the direction of Marion, which is twenty-seven miles this side of Abingdon. This is the raid in Breckenridge's rear.
